Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ohmori et al. (US 5,065,264).

As per claim 1, Ohmori et al. (US 5,065,264) discloses a magnetic recording and reproduction apparatus (Figs. 2-3) , comprising: a cylinder (3) for recording information to and/or reproducing information from a magnetic tape (2); a chassis section having a first chassis surface (15) having the cylinder (3) provided thereon and a second chassis surface (6) substantially perpendicular to the first chassis surface (15) (Fig. 1); a capstan section (e.g., 5, 22) for driving the magnetic tape (2) so as to run, the capstan section (5, 22) being provided on the first chassis surface (15); and a securing section (e.g., the bearings supporting the shaft (22), indicated by the X's in Fig. 1 and/or the screw (16)) for securing the capstan section to the chassis section, the securing section being provided on the second chassis surface (6).

Art Unit: 2627

As per claim 2, further comprising a pinch roller (21) for pressing the magnetic tape (2) to the capstan section toward the second chassis surface (6).

As per claim 3, further comprising a third chassis surface (e.g., thickness surface of chassis (15)) substantially perpendicular to the first chassis surface and the second chassis surface.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
